1	yes. simple physics.
2	If American people throw rice at weddings, do Chinese people throw hot dogs?
3	I am confused by this question.
4	No. Schrödinger's cat sound familiar?
5	You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make it drink.
6	Depends, does noise constitute as sound if no one is there to hear it? Yet it still create vibrations when it falls. But if it is in a vacuum then that is a different ball game all together.
7	No. Just as a man makes no mistake when no woman is around to see it.
